Apprentice Program

December 15, 2020

Dear Gilbert,

Congratulations on the Completion of your Drywall Applicator apprenticeship program with El Paso Association of Contractors.

The attached certificate confirms that you have successfully completed all the training requirements and are recognized as having acquired the necessary skills to perform at the journey person level.

To be successful in the today's modern world, the upgrading of your skills must be a continual process. The completion of your apprenticeship program is only the beginning of your Life Long skills acquisition. This initial step begins the process of securing your career and enjoying prosperous future.

Your apprenticeship records and successful completion are recorded on the U. S. Department of Labor, Office of Apprenticeship "Registered Apprenticeship Partners Information Database System 2.0". If for some reason your certificate is lost or misplaced, a "duplicate" certificate can be reissued by this office.

Once again, congratulations and best wishes in your career.

Sincerely,

Julian Oviedo, USN-RET,
